

Circular 014.07.23

To: Club Captains Lifesavers & Lifeguards
Club Trainers & Assessors Patrol Captains

From: Lifesaving Services

Date: 12 July 2023

Rescue Watercraft Operator – Gippsland EOI

Life Saving Victoria is now inviting applications from members who wish to attain the Rescue Watercraft (RWC) Certificate. LSV is wishing to increase in service capabilities within the RWC Space in Gippsland.

Date	Location	Type
21 st , 22 nd and 28 th , 29 th of October	Lakes Entrance	Weekend

Expectations

Applicants must be available across all four training days to be eligible for the course and complete an online theory component prior to the session. LSV will cover lunch and snacks for the day however further meals and accommodation will be at the candidate's expense.

Application Process

Members are invited to apply by clicking on the below link. Positions are limited and the decision on successful applicants will move through an Application Process.

Application Form: RWC Operator Course EOI

Applications close: Sunday July 30th, 2023.

Prerequisites

All applicants must meet the below criteria by the start date of the course to be eligible to be put on an upcoming course for the award.

RWC Prerequisites
Current Financial Member of a Victorian Life Saving Club
Bronze Medallion (BM) / Certificate II in Public Safety
Provide Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation – (HLTAID009)
Provide First Aid – (HLTAID003 or HLTAID0011)
Provide Advanced Resuscitation Technique – (HLTAID007 or HLTAID015)
Silver Medallion Beach Management (SMBM or SMPC)
SSV Operator
IRB Crew (IRBC)

IRB Driver (IRBD)
Current Victorian Driver's License
Current Victorian Marine License with PWC Endorsement

*For additional details on this circular please contact:
Operational Training at ops.training@lsv.com.au*